Sir:

REQUEST FOR PARTIAL REFUND OF FEES PAID

The undersigned respectfully requests a partial refund of fees paid, in accordance with 35 U.S.C. § 42(d) and 37 C.F.R. § 1.26, for the reasons set forth below. On May 27, 2008, Applicants filed a Petition for a one month extension of time in this application. Applicants electronically paid a fee in the amount of $120.00 via EFS-Web as a large entity for the one-month extension of time.

Applicants mistakenly paid this fee as a large entity, when Applicants had previously established small entity status via the transmittal letter filed with this application on December 20, 2004, which was noted on the Official Filing Receipt mailed September 13, 2005. Applicants have been, and continue to be, a small entity as defined by 37 C.F.R. § 1.27. As a result, Applicants are only required to pay fees in the amount of $65.00 (for the extension of time) for the May 27, 2008, filing.

Therefore, the undersigned respectfully requests a refund of $65.00, which is the difference between the amount paid by Applicants for the May 27, 2008, filing and the amount Applicants owed as a small entity.

The Director is authorized to deposit the refunded amount in Deposit Account 06-0916. In issuing the refund, please refer to our docket no. 02386.0096. Further, if there is any fee due for the filing of this Request, the Director is authorized to charge such required fee to Deposit Account 06-0916.

Respectfully submitted,

FINNEGAN, HENDERSON, FARABOW,
GARRETT & DUNNER, L.L.P.
